What is NASCO?

North America's SuperCorridor Coalition was founded in 1994 as a tri-national, non-profit trade and transportation association. NASCO members have been leaders at the forefront of uniting public and private sectors to address critical national and international trade, transportation, security and environmental issues throughout the United States, Canada and Mexico.

NASCO in the Region

The Denton community has a rich legacy of cooperation and mutual support as a founding member of NASCO. Mayor Pro-Tem Pete Kamp and Denton County Commissioner Ron Marchant currently serve on the NASCO Board of Directors.

NASCO has made much progress in the areas of transportation efficiency and security, environmental best practices and cooperation, and promotion of a national model, entry level logistics workforce development training program.

What are NASCO Regional Meetings?

The Regional meetings provide each community an opportunity to unite decision makers in the fields of transportation, trade, logistics and economic development to gain a deeper understanding of the coalition and the transportation challenges all of us face. Please RSVP to Rachel Connell, NASCO Director of Membership and Events at (214) 744-1006 or rachel@nascocorridor.com by Monday, December 7, 2009.
