

FROM COW
TO KID

From cow to kid

the acquis communautaire in practice

Drinking milk is something most of us have done, usually with little thought to how its quality, and our health, are guaranteed.

Behind something as apparently simple as a glass of milk lies a vast network of EU legislation, national regulations and institutions which together ensure that hygiene and quality standards are applied and enforced throughout the 'milk chain' -- all the way from the farm to the local shop.

To see the acquis in action click on the picture

If this is your first visit, please click here:
About this site

Illustrations by László Quitt

Last updated: 22 January 1999